Alcohol by Any Name Smelled Just As Sweet to Him

One young lady is out a bottle of toilet water, $5.00 size. One hobo hay pitcher, since liked to other fields, is in ditto, or it is in the hay tosser. She says in effect, though her choice of words may have been more refined, that she wouldn't give a darn, but the thing was a Christmas present. She hadn't touched a drop—well, that's not exactly the idea, either. She hadn't used any of the preparation, but was keeping it carefully, realizing its possibilities as a hand-me-along gift to someone else next Christmas. Circumstantial evidence in the shape of a highly perfumed and hectic respiration pointed "strongly" to the hay hand. She has still to discover the corpus delicti—in other words the empty bottle. She has learned that alcohol by any other name smells just as sweet to a hobo. She doesn't know whether the knowledge is worth the price of the toilet water.

Princess Mafalda, the 18 year-old daughter of the King of Italy, is one of the few women of European royalty who drive their own motorcars.

BONANZA LADIES HOLD SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL

An ice cream social was given by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church here last Friday evening, July 22. A song number was given by Harold and Mildred Chapman, son and daughter of the pastor, and Leonard, Darrel, Kathleen and Margaret Jeanne Bell. A large crowd attended and the ladies realized a neat sum from the sale of their ice cream and cake.

A classified Ad will sell it.

TONIGHT
FRANK MAYO
The hero of romance
Gallops across
The silver sheet
At THE LIBERTY
In "THE BLAZING TRAIL"
A whirlwind drama
Of Big Adventure
In the Blue Ridge mountains
Bringing back
The stirring days
Of the "White Caps"
Whose word was law
Along "the blazing trail"
You know
Down in Virginia
They shoot first
And argue about it
Afterwards
And our hero
Was a busy man
Dodging bullets
For the other fellow
But he gets by
They always do
In the pictures.
